

Testimonial:

It is difficult not to use buzz words when describing Mary Ellen, and as a realtor selling our home.

Mary Ellen is a friendly, courteous, and kind person who actually cares about her clients, and is very aware of the emotional roller coaster that sellers, and buyers experience.

Mary Ellen worked hard to help us prepare our home for sale. She worked alongside her professional stager, photographer, and videographer to ensure that our home stood out.

She appropriately valued our home and kept us completely in the loop regarding market conditions, prospective buyers, and details of showings.

Mary Ellen worked tirelessly in the final stages of the sale, and handled the proverbial challenges of waivers and amendments well.

Mary Ellen is the only realtor we would ever use again, and certainly gets our highest recommendation.
