

I am so happy that Mary Ellen made the experience of selling my home an easy seamless process.

The staging and preparing she took upon herself to make my home look fabulous was greatly appreciated. She was available for all my questions and concerns which made the transaction so much easier.

Happy with her professionalism and I would highly recommend Mary Ellen as your real estate agent for a positive experience.

Sincerely,

Ken Boudreau