

Mary Ellen is not only a top notch realtor, she is one of the nicest people I have ever met. She truly cares for her clients, is always available to answer questions and concerns. In preparing the house for the market there is no detail too small for her attention. She is a hard working and honest person, and I felt very comfortable leaving everything in her capable hands.

I would strongly recommend her if you are ever in need of a realtor.

Pat