

We were so fortunate to have found Mary Ellen when selling my father's home. What a contrast to other realtors I've dealt with!

We found her to be enthusiastic, caring, pragmatic, generous, knowledgeable, tech-savvy, scrupulous, responsive, and seemingly tireless — always willing to go an extra mile.

Her sage advice made a huge impact on the eventual sale. When it came to how to market the home my father lived in for 66 years, she was respectful, yet realistic.

We were doing it from out of town, but Mary Ellen made the process nearly painless, taking care of so many issues for us, from the big things (including some heavy lifting!) to the tiniest details.

I wouldn't hesitate for a second to recommend her to anyone needing a realtor. In fact, I'd shout it from the rooftop: Mary Ellen's one of the best in the business.
